Like Columbus in the olden days,
We must gather all our courage;
Sail our ship out on the open sea,
Cast away our fears and all the years
    will come and go
And take us up—always up.

Seals and Crofts

Changes—
No two moments the same:

Each moment a small lifetime—
a chance to build,
a chance to grow.

Each lifetime a unique collection of moments—
to be treasured,
to be kept and savored.

Reach for the Heavens,
And hope for the Future
and all that we can be,
not what we are!

John Denver

forever.*

On July 18, Dr. Pope A. Duncan became Stetson University's seventh president. Duncan came to Stetson from Georgia Southern College in Statesboro, Ga., where he had served as president since 1971. A former faculty member and an ordained Baptist minister, Duncan served as professor of religion at Stetson from 1946 to 1953.

"The strength of Stetson lies in many things," stated Duncan earlier this school term, "Among which are its nearly 100-year tradition of commitment to quality higher education, its loyal and competent faculty dedicated to the teaching enterprise, its supportive alumni scattered throughout the world, and its commitment to Christian values."

The Hatter Staff wishes President Duncan the very best, and wishes to thank Stetson Reporter for the above interview with President Duncan, which appeared in the September 9th edition.

Dr. George Borders
Now President of Atlantic
Beach College in West Palm

Dr. Garth Jenkins
New Vice-President of Student Affairs

Paul Langston
Dean of the School of Music

Edward Furlong, Jr.
Dean of the School of Business Administration

Robert Chauvin
Dean of the College of Liberal Arts

H. Graves Edmondson
Vice President of Finances

Colonel Ledgerwood
Accountant

Dan Moore
Director of Financial Aid

The Office of Student Affairs fulfills many needs of the student body. Not only do they place roommates together, but they also handle the dorm staffs, changes in meal ticket plans, talking to students with problems; in other words, the Student Affairs people do their very best to promote goodwill and keep the campus running as smoothly as possible. From the Hatter staff, many thanks to them, and best wishes for a good future.

Coach Gary Deckert had positive thoughts for his relatively young team. He said, "A little more experience promises a good team. I'm pleased with what we've done. We have an excellent organization to work with."

"Injuries were a factor this year. In addition to game injuries, we've been hindered by a car accident and a shark bite incident." Next year Coach Deckert will look to returning men Sal Sanchez, Mark Oppenheim, Ed Fitzgerald, Derek Maul, and Virgil Shepherd to compliment for departing seniors Phil Flournoy, Mike Irely, Hoke Maroon, and Ward Swain.

How could they lose under someone like Coach Jim Bambrick? Well, they did, but through no fault of his. Stetson's women's basketball team lost more than they won, but being only three years old, they are still more or less in the building stages. However, even with a lack of an adequate number of players, this season was a great improvement over the past two years, ending with a record of 11-14. Most of the team members will be returning next year and look forward to great successes.

Dave Purdue has some unique features which are very advantageous, such as his extra pair of arms (right), however he is very camera shy (below). Far right, Purdue and Daniels await their turn. Lower right, it's Purdue again. Middle, Curt Forrester is clear for two points.

Stetson came in second in the exciting 1977-78 Hatter Classic. In two nights of top basketball, Stetson defeated Arkansas, but lost to New Orleans, who left Deland as champions of the doubleheader. Left is Dave Purdue with the trophy for second place. Outstanding players named were Kurt Forrester and Mel Daniels (no surprise.)

At halftime the second night, the 1978-79 Miss Hatter was announced. Standing with Dr. Pope Duncan below are runner-up Diane Tobin, 1977-78 Miss Hatter Barb Kvinge, pageant chairman Barb Knipper, and the new Miss Hatter Leslie Howell.

The Homecoming basketball game was an exciting culmination to a weekend of activities. Stetson had suffered a defeat at the hands of the University of South Florida's Bulldogs earlier in the season; this time it was USF's turn to suffer. The Hatters played an excellent game and came out with a decisive victory over USF, much to the pleasure of a packed gymnasium of students and alumnae.

The volleyball team under Coach Sharon Shepherd suffered a rather discouraging season this year. Playing a tough schedule, they still managed a number of wins and learned much that will be valuable in the future. With most of the team returning next year, they look forward to a more exciting and rewarding season next winter.

CHEERLEADERS

With a new coach, new uniforms and some new stunts, the cheerleaders seemed to pick up new enthusiasm and spirit to help cheer the Hatters to a winning season. Under their coach Jan Carey and captain Colleen Mahoney their liveliness inspired students and fans alike, and will no doubt carry into next year.

Having several very successful seasons behind them, and under the guidance of coach Sandy Bean, the women's tennis team was destined for another big year. They placed first in the regional tournament and were highly favored to win the state championship for small colleges. There was just no competition for top players Mandy Parsons, Joan Kreider and Sue Overvold as well as the rest of the lady Hatters.

Under the guidance of Coach Ray Hussey and with the returning talents of several players, the men's tennis team showed great improvement over the past few years. They played a tough season, but had the stuff to take both singles and doubles, ending with an excellent record and looking forward to an even better season next Spring.

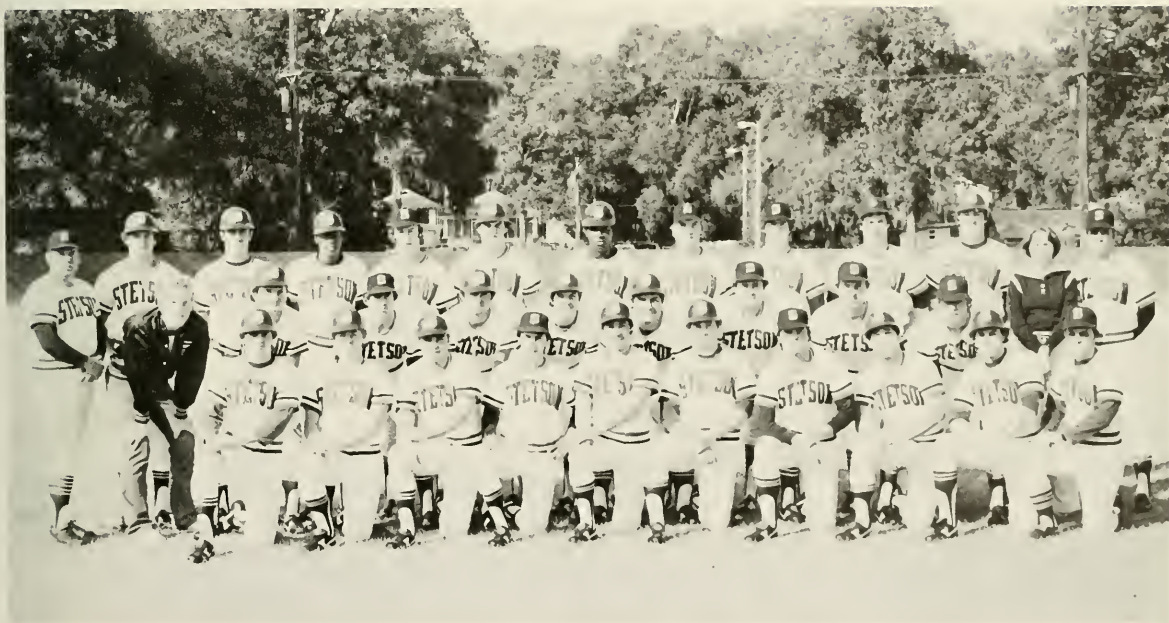

Standing: Jim Butterfield, Chuck Hall, Bill Ward, John Tucker; Kneeling: Coach Ray Hussey, Mark Siegal, Mickey Nolan, Bill Stover, Chip Winston.

Head Coach Ward and assistant Coaches Dunn and Moyer expect nothing but the best from their baseball players and that's what they get. Looking back at several extremely successful seasons and with the return of a great number of veteran players, the team couldn't do anything but win. The hitting Hatters had excellent coaching and much of their own cooperation and teamwork to rely on. (One could imagine being named Player of the Week as somewhat of an incentive, not to mention the watchful eyes of the ever-present Bat-girls.)

GOLF

With the success of past years and talents of several returning players, the golf team looked forward to nothing less than an excellent season. In practice out at Southridge, they showed off the stuff necessary to be an impressive competitor. Coach Weickel has led the swinging Hatters long enough to know the ropes and provide the kind of advice and suggestions needed. So . . . there they go, and . . . Four!!

It all began twenty-three years ago when a group of students decided to form a committee to raise money for needy institutions. They began collecting pennies and dimes from their fellow students. In return, the peers were given a green feather to symbolize thanks. As a result the name "Greenfeather" was established, and the tradition returns year after year.

Hail to the heroes
who have gone before us.
Young men and maidens,
filled with true devotion!

Bright is their glory,
fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!

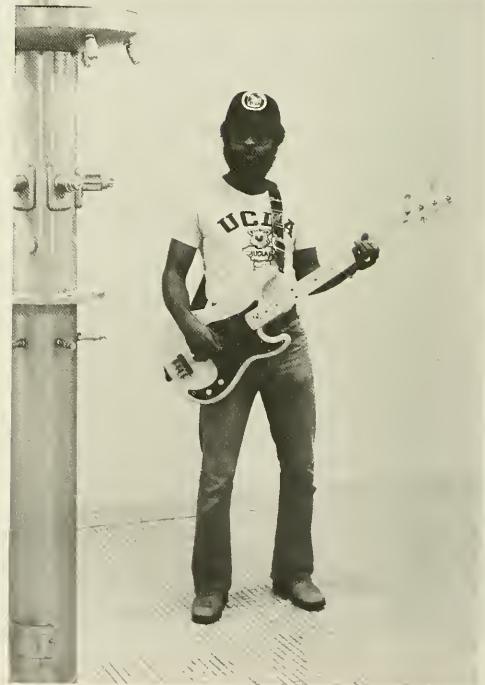

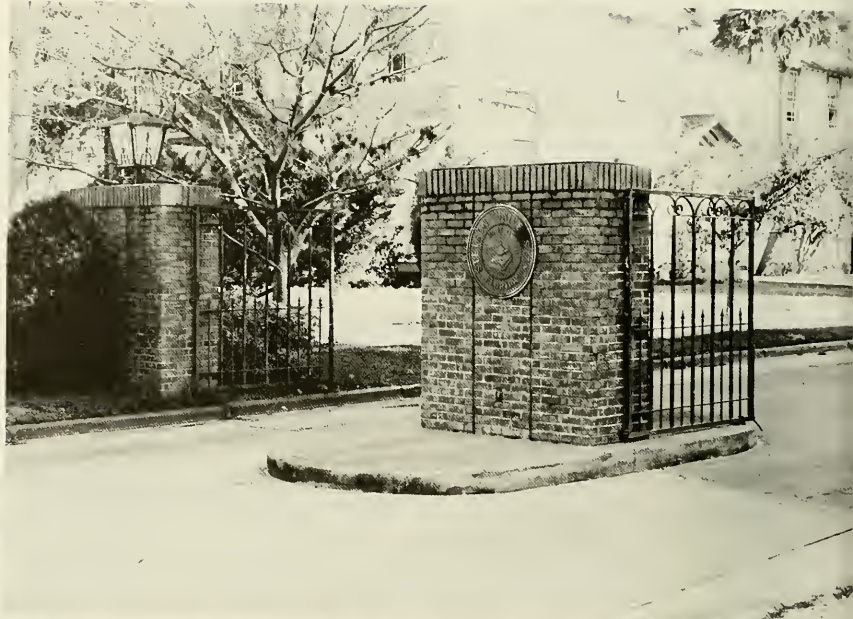

Hail to our classmates,
bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge
our vows of friendship;

Stetson's 58th annual Homecoming was highlighted by a dinner with Max Cleland, a sell-out concert featuring comedian Steve Martin, and a Hatter basketball victory.

Approximately 600 alumni attended the alumni dinner which featured guest speaker Max Cleland. A graduate of Stetson, Cleland is the administrator of the Veterans Administrations.

An estimated 4,900 people turned out for the Saturday afternoon concert with Steve Martin. Martin is well-known for such gags as the arrow-through-the-head, the nose and glasses, "Fun Balloon Animals", and, of course, his ever-popular statement—"Excuuuuuuusse Me!"

The final big event of the weekend was the basketball game. The largest crowd of the season jammed into the Edmunds Center on Saturday night to watch Stetson's 86-74 Homecoming victory over the University of South Florida.

INAUGURATION

Dr. Pope Alexander Duncan

Representatives of about 200 colleges, universities, and learned societies joined more than 100 members of the faculty and staff of Stetson University in the academic procession which preceded the formal inauguration of Dr. Pope Alexander Duncan as the seventh president of Florida's oldest institution of higher learning.

The ceremony was grounded in ancient academic tradition. The representatives of the universities filled in, led by the man from the oldest in the nation—Harvard. Dr. Duncan came last in the procession behind the Stetson mace bearer. Dr. J. Ollie Edmunds, Chancellor of the university, presided during the service, and Dr. John Pelham, chairman of the board of trustees, conducted the investiture of the new president with the presentation of the traditional symbols of office—the charter and presidential medallion.

In his inaugural remarks, the new president issued a four-point moral and intellectual charge to the community, to the faculty, and to the student body. He spoke of the need in the university to produce unity in the curriculum, to provide leadership through a commitment to a set of values, to respond to the needs of the adult community, and to find ways to finance higher education in a time of a shrinking student market and inflating costs. Dr. Duncan concluded his statements by saying "I am not frightened by those who would write off the independent college. Certainly some will fail—but not institutions with tradition, commitment, a clear mission, quality, and a constituency—and Stetson has them all."

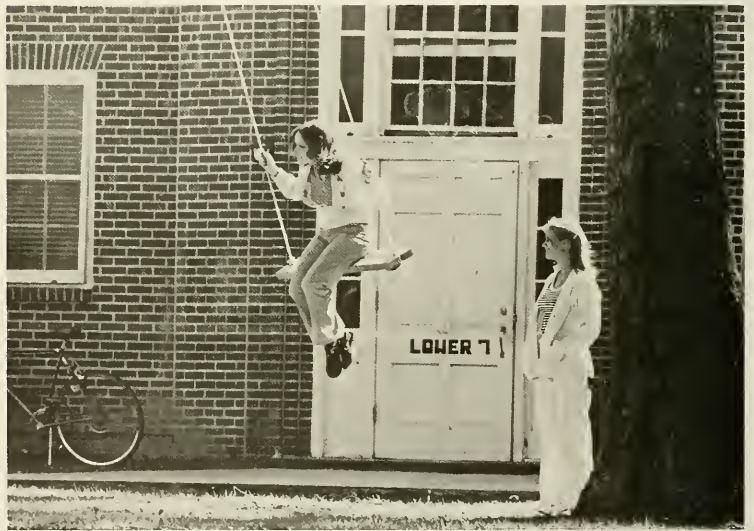

Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud the chorus,
Long live our comrades dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;

Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus;

Hail, Alma Mater dear!

They tell me that editor's letters in yearbooks are passé, but I figure I deserve it right about now, so here I go.

First, I want to apologize to everyone, very especially the faculty and administration, who was not adequately represented in this yearbook. I offer as an excuse only my lack of adequate foresight in working with college photographers (they're the same as high school photographers—they still need to be horsewhipped once in awhile). I do sincerely hope next year will be better.

I had all kinds of dreams for the book when I came back to Stetson. Well, the job turned out to be a little more than I thought it would be. We might actually make it though (at this point, it is still somewhat uncertain). Anyway, I want to give my special thanks to Sharon Parker, Charlotte Breed and Mark Elias (who metamorphosed from a strange head in front of me in PE/201 into a good friend), who were all a tremendous help and encouragement to me. A special thanks also to Russell Schropp, Dr. George Borders, Jerry Fields—our yearbook representative, and John Renauld—our Stevens Studios representative. Thanks as well to my sections editors: Florrie, Suzanne and Lynn, to staffers Rudy, Marie, Angela, Dennis and JT, and finally to everyone who has been so patient and cooperative and all those I don't have room to name.

It's been quite an experience; I imagine I'll be glad I did it someday. As for now, we realize it's no award winner, but it was really fun (at times). At any rate, Stetson, your yearbook has been rescued from the mire of apathy. It is my fervent hope it will not be allowed to sink again. Best of luck to all future yearbook staffers.

Sincerely,

This . . . is the end of my quest. I wished to know the meaning of things. I am the meaning. I wished to find a warrant for being. I need no warrant for being, and no word of sanction upon my being. I am the warrant and the sanction.

Whatever road I take, the guiding star is within me; the guiding star and the loadstone which point the way. They point in but one direction. They point to me.

Ayn Rand

YOU'RE GOOD FOREVER!
